

Specialty medications

Save by using coupons or copay cards

Did you know?

Many specialty drug manufacturers provide coupons or copay assistance cards for specialty drugs. They help to make high cost medications more affordable.

Where can I find coupons and copay cards?

To find copay cards or coupons:

1. Search for a medication or manufacturer website using your internet browser (Chrome, Edge, Safari, etc.)

Example: Type in the drug name and “copay savings”

OR

2. Ask your doctor or pharmacist about available savings programs for certain specialty drugs.

How do I use the coupon or copay card?

- Specialty drugs are filled through Optum Specialty Pharmacy.
- Call Optum Specialty Pharmacy once they have received your prescription.
- Let them know you have a coupon or copay card. They will add it to your patient profile

What's next? Start saving!

The coupon card will be applied toward any out-of-pocket expenses you may have for your specialty drug.

Will my out-of-pocket expenses always be zero?

The idea behind a copay card is to reduce your out-of-pocket expense. In some cases, it will result in $0 out-of-pocket expense. Some manufacturers have a minimum copay amount.

How does that work with my employer's deductible or out-of-pocket plans?

- For plans with deductibles (Optimal Plan):
Only the cost share you pay applies to your out-of-pocket maximum (out of pocket).
- For plans with copays (Prime Plan):
If the coupon covers the cost of your copay, the drug coupon amount is not applied to your out of pocket expense.

Are there any special rules?

Program rules vary, if you have private health insurance you are eligible to enroll in a drug copay card program.

For many cards, there is also an expiration date and a savings maximum. It varies by drug, but it's typically a monthly or annual maximum. Sometimes there are limits on the number of times you can use the card.

What else do I need to know?

Currently, more than 200 drugs offer coupons or copay cards. These represent over 90% of the available value of coupon card funds in the market today.

Manufacturers can cancel a coupon card at any time.
