How the Alliance Account Works

Do not return this page with the completed form.

Your Funds: All funds are held within Prudential's general account. It is not FDIC insured because it is not a bank account or a bank product. Funds held in the Alliance Account are guaranteed by State Guaranty Associations. Please contact the National Organization of Life and Health Insurance Guaranty Associations (www.nolhga.com) to learn more about coverage limitations on your account. State guaranty fund coverages are not determined by the insurance company.

Beneficiary Designation: After electing an Alliance Account, you may designate a beneficiary for your account by completing and returning the beneficiary designation in your Alliance Account kit.

How Interest Is Earned: The funds in an Alliance Account begin earning interest immediately and will continue to earn interest until all funds are withdrawn. Interest is accrued daily, compounded daily, and credited every month. The interest rate may change and will vary over time, subject to a minimum rate that will not change more than once every 90 days. You will be advised in advance of any change to the minimum interest rate via your quarterly Alliance Account statement or by calling Customer Support. The interest rate credited to the Alliance Account is adjusted by Prudential at its discretion based on variable economic factors (including, but not limited to, prevailing market rates for short-term demand deposit accounts, bank money market rates, and Federal Reserve Interest rates) and may be more or less than the rate Prudential earns on the funds in the account.

Account Statements: You will receive regular (either monthly or quarterly) statements showing your current balance, the interest you earned, the drafts you have written, your current interest rate, and any other account activity. The frequency at which the statements are mailed to you is determined by the activity in your Alliance Account.

Special Service Fees: There are fees for special services, which are subject to change, and include stop payments ($12 per draft/$25 maximum for three or more per day); cashed draft copy or statement copy ($2 per draft); drafts returned for insufficient funds ($10 per draft); and overnight delivery (based on carrier's charge).

Minimum Balance: If the balance falls below $250, you will receive a check for the remaining balance plus interest at the end of the monthly cycle in which the balance fell below $250. You can close the Alliance Account at any time by calling the Customer Service office. A check for the remaining balance and interest will be sent to you. Or, you can close the account by writing an Alliance draft for the balance and cashing it or depositing it at your own bank. Since interest accrues daily, a check for the remaining accrued interest will be sent to you.

Inactive Accounts: State law requires that if there is no account activity and we have had no contact with you regarding your Alliance Account after a number of years (which time period varies by state), your Alliance Account may be considered "dormant." If your Alliance Account becomes "dormant," you will be mailed a check for the remaining balance plus interest, at your last address shown on our records. If you do not timely cash that check, your funds will be transferred to the state as unclaimed property. If your funds are transferred to the state, you may claim those funds from the state but you may be charged a fee by the state. Once your funds are transferred to the state, we no longer have any liability or responsibility with respect to your Alliance Account. For Alliance Account funds paid under the Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance program, the treatment of those "dormant" funds may be different.
